

ABSTRACT

Destyana, Rensi. 08.05.1.1.1.00034. Jane's Infidelity Leading To Downfall Of Her Family In Follet's Lie Down With Lions." Thesis. English Study Program, Faculty of Social and Cultural Sciences, University of Trunojoyo Madura. Advisors: (I) Imron Wakhid Harits, S.S. M.Pd. Advisor (II) Erika Citra Sari H, S.S. M.Hum

JANE'S INFIDELITY IN FOLLET'S LIE DOWN WITH LIONS

Marriage is relationship between woman and men that want to be partner in real life. There are many problem that occur in family life like infidelity. The relationship does not based on the honest and respect can not stay long. Somehow, there are temptation and obstacle that can break the marriage.

The scope of this study is personality infidelity in narcissism theory to analyzing novel especially in Lie Down with Lion . The discussion of the study is limited on of Jane's character which is focused on her unfaithful act toward marriage in Lie Down with Lions. This study is aimed to answer the following questions, (1) The cause of Jane's infidelity (2) The kind of Jane's infidelity depicted in this novel, (3) the effect of Jane's infidelity

The focus of this study is about narcissism experienced by Jane in Ken Follet Lie Down With Lions. Narcissism is characterized by an exaggerated sense of self-importance and uniqueness, an unreasonable sense of entitlement, a craving for admiration, exploitative tendencies toward others, deficient empathy, and arrogance. Concerning this matter, it is found that narcissism experienced by main character are an unreasonable sense of entitlement, a craving for admiration, exploitative tendencies toward others. Therefore, this study is intended to explain the changing herself as human superior than other to get attention people around her

After analyzing the novel, the conclusion of this study is found Jane's experiences infidelity. He does infidelity, beside her husband becomes a cruel husband, he always do violence in household. So she can find another man to change position as a husband and father to her daughter, Chantal. Narcissistic woman are more to be loved than loved, one attributes to one's object of love such qualities and perfection which one would like to possess.

Key Words: Narcissism, Infidelity