

ABSTRACT

CikalBakti Pertiwi. 2015. 150511100014. English Study Program, Faculty of Social and Cultural Science. An Analysis of Facebook Status Written by Male and Female Facebook Users.

This research focuses on Sociolinguistics study about the differences between male and female gender in write a status topic on their Facebook. There are 11 kinds of topics of Facebook based on Indonesian topic status on Facebook, they are; (1) Sleep, (2) Family Fun, (3) Girlfriend/boyfriend/friendship, (4) Sports/Game, (5) Politics, (6) Love, (7) Thankfullness, (8) Asking for Support/Prayer, (9) Memorial, (10) Complaining, (11) Job. The aim of this research are (1) to give information what status that men and women usually write on their Facebook, and (2) To increase the knowledge about the relation between men and women status topics to their gender.

The study is conducted in qualitative way, because in this study, the data that collected and analyzed are in words form. The source of data chosen in this study is Facebook, and the data of this study are Facebook status updates that written by male and female users. The status updates that will analyzed by the writer is from 2017-2019.

From 100 datas that collected by the writer, the writer just found 50 statuses that has relation with the topic based on Indonesian topic status on Facebook. The writer found and analyzed one by one in discussion section based on the theory about the differences between male and female when they write a status on Facebook, and also the relation the status topic based on their own gender.

Keywords : Sociolinguistics, Gender, Language and Gender, Facebook, Status topic