

ABSTRACT

Ahdiyah, D. 150511100036. An Analysis of Archetypal Characters in The Silver Dream by Neil Gaiman and Michel Reaves. Thesis. English Study Program of the Faculty of Social and Cultural sciences. University of Trunojoyo Madura. Advisor: Zakiyatul Mufidah, S.Hum., M.Hum.

The concern of this study is an analysis archetypal characters in The Silver Dream by Neil Gaiman and Michel Reaves. The aim of this study is analyze the archetype characters using Jung's archetype theory. This study also explain how are the portrayals happen in The Silver Dream Novel.

This study applies qualitative research, because the data is utterances or the form of words. Characters utterances and author's narration are used to examine from the psychoanalysis approach which is focusing on Carl Gustav Jung's archetype theory. In addition, data reduction, data displays, and conclusion verification are the techniques of analyzing the data.

Based on the analysis, the results show that that there are twelve characters who show Jung's archetypes in their personality in The Silver Dream, those characters are Joey with the persona and anima, J/O with the persona and shadow, Hue with the persona, Jai with the persona, Joaquim with the persona, HEX and Binary with the shadow, Joseph Harker with the guide, Jakon with the animus, Jo with the animus and Acacia with the animus archetype.

Keywords: Archetype, personality, The Silver Dream novel.