

ABSTRACT

M. Ahkim Alfarih. 150511100080. An Analysis of Agentive Noun in Light Novel Entitled Spice & Wolf by Isuna Hasekura. Thesis. English Study Program. Faculty of Social and Cultural Sciences. University of Trunojoyo Madura. Advisor: Iqbal Nurul Azhar, S.S., M.Hum

The aim of the study is to explain the agentive noun which exist in the light novel entitled Spice & Wolf by Isuna Hasekura. In analyzing the data, the writer used two theories. The first theory was proposed by Saeed (2003). It is to analyze the types of agentive noun. The Second theory was proposed by Owoeeye (2013). It is to analyze the semantics interpretation of agentive noun. In this study, the writer used descriptive qualitative design because the data are in the form of words rather than numbers. The writer used qualitative content analysis to collect the data because the data are in the form of text. The writer used interactive data analysis to analyze the data.

The results of the study show that there are two kinds of Agentive Noun found in the data, namely Regular Agentive Noun (32 data) and Irregular Agentive Noun (2 data). The study also found out that there are 3 types of Semantics Interpretation of Agentive Noun found in the data, namely Animate Agent (19 data), Professional Agent (14 data), and Partisan Agent (1 datum). No Inanimate Agent and Instrument Agent found in the data.

Keywords: Agentive Noun, Types, Semantics Interpretation.