

ABSTRACT

Islamiyah, S. 13.05.111.00116. A study of lexical cohesion in song lyrics by Harris Jung. Thesis. English study Program of the faculty of social and cultural sciences, Trunojoyo University. Advisor: Dr. Masduki, M.Pd.

This study focuses on the lexical cohesion found in Jung's song lyrics. This study aims to explain the types of lexical cohesion and the functions of them which are taken from lyrics of song by Harris Jung. This study uses two theories, those are Halliday and Hasan (1976) and Brian Paltridge (2006).

This study is conducted by using qualitative research because the data in the form of words. The source of data are Jung's song lyrics on Salam Album that consists of My Hero, Rasool 'Allah, Good Life, You are My Life, Ied Mubarak, Paradise, Worth It, The One, Let Me Breathe, Promise, Salam Alaikum song lyrics. The main instrument in collecting, classifying, and analyzing the data is the researcher herself. The method of collecting this data is content analysis and to analyze the data the writer uses interactive data analysis.

In the findings, the writer found 26 data. The writer found four types of lexical cohesion devices, 19 data which are included into repetition, 4 data are included into synonymy, 1 data is included into antonymy, and 2 data are included into hyponymy. Beside that, the writer also found the functions of lexical cohesion that consist to their types. Those are to indicate repetition (19 data), to indicate synonymy (4 data), to indicate antonymy (1 data), and to indicate hyponymy (2 data)

Keywords: Lexical Cohesion, Types of Lexical Cohesion, and the Functions of Lexical Cohesion Devices