

ABSTRACT

Aminatus Sofia Rukmini, Financial Performance Analysis of the General Hospital Syamrabu Bangkalan Against Public Accountability. under the guidance of Nurul Kompyurini, S.E., M.Ak., Ak and Anis Wulandari, S.E MSA., Ak. Of page 42.

The purpose of this study is to analyze the financial performance of the General Hospital Syamrabu Bangkalan when seen from the economical ratio, efficiency ratio, and the ratio of the effectiveness of the 2009-2013. The data in this study, namely, the Budget Realization Report General Hospital Syamrabu Bangkalan was taken the last five years (2009-2013). With the approach of research using quantitative descriptive research method in which the data or information in the form of figures analyzed and then drawn conclusions clearly compare to each other with a quantitative calculation.

The results obtained from this study is (1) Hospital financial performance Syamrabu Bangkalan when seen from the ratio has been relatively economical economical because the percentage value obtained is less than 100% (2) Hospital financial performance Syamrabu Bangkalan when seen from the efficiency ratio is still relatively inefficient as a percentage of the value obtained more than 100% (3) Hospital financial performance Syamrabu Bangkalan when seen from the ratio of the effectiveness of already classified as effective as a percentage value of more than 100% despite the five-year budget in 2013 to obtain a percentage value of less than 100% so relatively ineffective.

Keywords : Financial Performance, Economical Ratio, Efficiency Ratio, Ratio Effectiveness, Accountability.