

ABSTRACT

NUR HASANAH, 130521100036 " WEDDING HERE " under the guidance of Mr. Hisnuddin Lubis S.S.Sos .MA. Sociology Program Faculty of Social and Cultural Sciences of Trunojoyo University of Madura.

The purpose of this research is to know how Early Marriage in Jangkar Village of Jangkar Sub-district of Situbondo Regency, the subject of this research is the parent who marries the underage child with the determined characteristics.

This research method using qualitative approach of case study research type , data collection technique in this research using in-depth interview and participant observation. The selected informant using purposive sampling. Selected analysis using Miles and Herbesman ie interactive analysis. The technique of verifying the validity of ata using triangulation source .

The results showed that the community, especially the elderly people in the village of Jangkar also perform traditional actions and rational actions against marriage done to children in early age, people in the village of Jangkar do early marriage to their children because of the tradition that is maintained and certain goals against other individuals to achieve a dream, the community also provides pelebelaan against individuals who exceed the age limit of marriage that is determined by the community itself.

Keywords: Marriage, Early .

