Defy Firman Al Hakim, (CONSTRUCTION NEWS IN ONLINE MEDIA NEWS (NEWS ANALYSIS OF FRAMING CONFLICT BASUKI TJAHJA PURNAMA (AHOK) AND FRONT PEMBELA ISLAM (FPI) IN ONLINE MEDIA TEMPO.CO AND FORUMKEADILAN.COM IN OCTOBER-NOVEMBER 2014)

The conflict between Basuki Tjahja Purnama (Ahok) and Front Pembela Islam (FPI) be an interesting discussion in most of the mass media. increasingly become a problem when Ahok will replace Jokowi Widodo as governor after winning the 2014 elections. For several months, this conflict is presented regularly by various online news portal, including Tempo.co and Forumkeadilan.com. Both in the news package has a different angle and perspective. Both construct reality based predispositions. To dissect construction built by the media, this study uses the theory of framing by framing analysis model of the Zhondang Pan dan Gerald M Kosicki model with to operationalize the four structural dimensions of text news: sintacsis, script, thematic and rhetorical.

From the analysis of media framing, can we interpret that tempo.co favor the Ahok of the FPI. This is because the more advantageous Ahok brand image, because Jokowi leadership issues that matter to ordinary people still attached also to Ahok. While the FPI has a bad impression on the public. In the forumkeadilan.com favor anti Ahok stronghold in this case is the FPI. Because of the early forumkeadilan.com present to reject the presence of outsiders who hurt indigenous presence. While Ahok itself has long been suggested as ethnic Chinese
