

ABSTRACT

Kengean Islands is once of Sumenep island which consists of two sub-districts Arjasa and Kangayan. Location of Kangean Island is 21.0 Km add by sea voyage + 10 hours (km) from Sumenep islands. Sea Transportation is needed because there is still no air transportation to serve the transport to Kangean Islands. Transportation is essentially to move people or goods from one place to another, aim to help people or groups of people reach their desired places or send goods from origin to destination. The process can be carried out by means of transportation such as the of Land, Sea and Air transport.

This research uses empirical research methods, it is use law application research of the field of implementation. In terms of implementation and ease of administration of a special facility for the disabled and the sick were carried out by PT. Sumekar Line Kalianget-Kangean these, they do debriefing to obtain data efforts passengers with disabilities and people do not get sick when specific facilities and services as defined in the Act Shipping and analyze the data obtained by the method of inductive thinking, which departed from the common method to special.

The provisioning of special facilities and services by PT Sumekar Line Kalianget Kangean. The start of pre-departure passenger cruise to cruise against the disabled and sick people in delivering services to passengers as well as efforts to be made by passengers with disabilities and people do not get sick if special facilities and not easily accordance with force legislation.

Keywords:

Special facilities, Easily facility, People with Disabilities, The Sick person.