

Nur Aini. NIM 100321100024. Analysis of Potential Sectors to Boost Economic Development in the District Pamekasan. Supervised by Andrie K. Sunyigono, SP., MP., Ph.D

ABSTRACT

Regional development is essentially an integral part of national development aimed at improving living standards through the development of a harmonious region, with efficient and effective planning and integrated across sectors towards the achievement of regional autonomy. The purpose of this study is to determine the base sectors in the district Pamekasan years 2008-2012 and knowing sector potential in the district Pamekasan. The data used in this research is secondary data obtained from the Central Bureau of Statistics of East Java and Central Bureau of Statistics Pamekasan. To find a basic sector used Location Quotien (LQ) analysis. LQ results show the agricultural sector is a sector basis with a average value of 2,74 which is he biggest LQ. To determine the potential sectors in the district of Pamekasan used Shift share analysis. The results of this analysis show that agricultural sector, including sectors with the most potential sector because the sector is the sector most in contributing to GDP in the district Pamekasan Rp. 500,33 billion.

Key words: Location Quotient, GDP Pamekasa, Shift Share, Economic Structure.