

ABSTRACT

Farida, 10.05.111.000.37. A Study of Speech Act in “Cinderella” Movie. Thesis. English Study Program of the Faculty of Social and Cultural Sciences, University of Trunojoyo Madura. Advisor: Diah Ikawati Ayuningtias, S.S., M.Pd

This study concerns on the types of illocutionary act in “Cinderella”. A movie directed by Kenneth Branagh in 2015. This study aims to explain illocutionary act that used by the main characters in conversation of Cinderella movie. In analyzing the data, this study used type of speech act theory. Moreover, this research used the qualitative design. The data of this study are the utterances, phrases, clauses and sentences used in Cinderella Movie. The data of this study are collected by using content analysis method. They are directive, expressive, representative, commissive, and declarative as types of illocutionary act that found in “Cinderella” Movie. From the data analysis, the writer collected 18 data from Cinderella movie. As the result of study there are 8 utterances for directive type, commissive are 0 utterance, representative are 6 utterances, declarative are 0 utterance, and expressive are 4 utterances.

Keywords: Type of Illocutionary Act, Speech Act theory, Cinderella Movie